Wow this is one to see! This beautifully crafted home is tucked away inside the well sought after gated community of Sweetbriar. A perfectly well appointed home with comfortable living inside and out. The inviting rocking chair front porch is your entry of this one story home offering hardwood flooring throughout. Immediately to the right you are greeted with French doors leading into the office and across the hall is a dining room with crown molding, chair rail and shadow boxes. As you continue through the foyer you are presented with the beautiful coved ceiling family room. Cozy up in front of the gas fireplace and watch the wild life outside from the French doors with transoms that overlook the private backyard. The Chef's kitchen overlooking the family room offers, a gas cooktop, a double wall oven, a large entertainment island, custom-built cabinets, a dry bar with backlit glass cabinets, and a walk-in pantry. The master bedroom is spacious and bright with beautiful double windows with transoms for extra lighting, hardwood flooring, and gorgeous trim, off the bedroom is the large master bath, an oversized tiled shower with frameless doors, an I-shaped vanity with corner custom counter cabinet and his and her sinks. Step outside to find the attached carport leading to a 427 sq foot finished room perfect to work from home, gym, or mother-in-law suite. The private backyard with a covered carport is equipped with a gas and a propane
